

Incoterms® 2010

by the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC)

Incoterms® rules explain standard terms that are used in contracts for the sale of goods.

They are essential ICC tools that help traders avoid misunderstandings by clarifying the costs, risks, and responsibilities of both buyers and sellers.

Because the rules are developed by experts and practitioners brought together by ICC, and involve a long consultative process, they are globally accepted and have become the standard in international business rules setting.

Incoterms® 2010 will be launched in September 2010 and come into effect on January 1, 2011.

Last revised in 2000, the Incoterms® 2010 rules book is a must for anyone engaged in national and international trade.

ICC Pub. No 715E; 130 pages; 13cm x 24cm

This new edition takes into account the latest developments in the trading environment. In addition to the 11 rules (EXW, FCA, CPT, CIP, DAT, DAP, DDP, FAS, FOB, CFR and CIF), Incoterms® 2010 rules book includes:

- Extensive guidance notes and illustrative graphics to help users efficiently choose the right rule for each transaction;
- New classification to help choosing the most suitable rule in relation to the mode of transport;
- Advice for the use of electronic procedures;
- Information on security-related clearances for shipments;
- Advice for the use of Incoterms® 2010 in domestic trade
